The first part is a large rectangular box with a light gray grid pattern. A curved arrow points from its bottom-left corner down to the top-left corner of the second part.

The second part is a rectangular box with horizontal lines, resembling a piece of lined paper with a slightly wavy bottom edge. A curved arrow points from its bottom-right corner down to the top-right corner of the third part.

The third part is a smaller rectangular box with a light gray grid pattern. A curved arrow points from its bottom-right corner down to the top-left corner of the pot.

The fourth part is a drawing of a gray pot with two handles on the sides. The front of the pot features five decorative white floral or cross-like patterns arranged in a horizontal row.
